Benefits that you expect to receive.

What new knowledge will you gain, and how will this support your postgraduate studies or research?

What will you do differently as a result of undertaking this research?

Expected relevance to communities. We only support training that will aid students to do research of relevance to aiding communities in sustainable poverty-alleviation. Normally we expect students to provide concrete plans for working with communities: however for 2021 we expect this will not always be appropriate in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic. Therefore, please describe your aspirations for how your work can benefit communities, and practical steps that could be taken in future to achieve this (but not necessarily in 2021).

How are your studies relevant to communities' sustainable poverty-alleviation?

How will the training course described above enhance your relevance to sustainable poverty alleviation?

Which community (or communities) do you aspire to engage with, and how?

How much are you applying for from The Orskov Foundation?
